

- 1) User lands on page
- 2) web client checks for session

- 1) web client generates a token
- 2) web client requests salt
- 3) user enters email and password
- 4) client hashes salt and password
- 5) client requests session id
- 6) If it's a good login then, client stores session id

http://

Create a New Account

In order to register a new account, please see your site administrator or send an email to registration@qualoscopy.com

If you just want to try out the service, user the login name "demo@qualoscopy.com" and the password "demo"

Home